

We're popping up everywhere!

Waterfront Seattle's free photo booth is one more great reason to visit your favorite fairs, festivals and parks this summer. Come find us in your neighborhood for free photos of your family and to learn more about how we're designing a waterfront for all.

If you've already seen us out and about, thanks for stopping by! If not, check out the list below and keep up with us on the website and Facebook to see where we'll be next. See you in the sun!
