

COLL THRUSH DECEMBER 4

You're invited to a free lecture with Coll Thrush, historian and author of Native Seattle. This talk will discuss the ways Seattle and Vancouver, BC use the history of Native-settler relations and "Indian" images to make sense of (and sell) themselves. Thrush will be introduced by Leonard Forsman, Chairman of the Suquamish Tribal Council.

This event is being presented by Seattle's Office of Arts & Culture and the Seattle Department of Transportation as part of the Waterfront Seattle Art Plan. For more information, visit the event's web page.

Coll Thrush & Going 'Native':
Urban Iconography and the Uses (and Abuses) of the Indigenous and Settler Past

Wednesday, December 4 from 7 PM to 9 PM

Olympic Sculpture Park

2901 Western Ave

Free!

Planning to attend? Be sure to register!

Questions or comments?

info@waterfrontseattle.org

206.499.8040

<http://www.waterfrontseattle.org>

Unsubscribe

Having trouble reading this email? Click here for a plain version.