

WATERFRONT HAPPENINGS

Call for Artists: Seattle Waterfront Public Piers Project

As part of Waterfront Seattle, the Seattle Office of Arts & Culture and Seattle Department of Transportation are looking for an artist to create significant works for Seattle's public piers – Pier 62/63 and the new Union Street Pier (today's Waterfront Park).

Seattle's thriving, working waterfront will include artworks such as temporary projects, residencies, performances, lectures and educational programs during the central waterfront's redevelopment and beyond, as outlined in the Waterfront Seattle Art Plan. This call for artists is one of a series for permanent and temporary art along Seattle's future waterfront.

- Visit the City's Public Piers call for artists for more information!
- Questions? Connect with public art program manager Eric Fredericksen at 206.733.9838
- Submission deadline: Thursday, January 9, 2014 at 11 PM
- Apply today!

Website 2.0 continues!

Have you visited our new website yet? We're continuing to upgrade it to make it easier for you to use. Most recently, we've added a direct link from the homepage to our email sign-up form for both the Seawall Project and Waterfront Seattle. Be sure to join the Seawall's email list for construction updates each week!

Questions or comments?

info@waterfrontseattle.org

206.499.8040

www.waterfrontseattle.org

Having trouble reading this email? Click here for a plain version.

Unsubscribe

