

waterfront WATERFRONT
MARCH 5-9 WEEK

Ready to engage with artists and designers? Here's the latest on Art, Design, & Play, including keynote address with architectural historian Liane Lefaivre on Friday, March 7, and action-packed panel discussions on Saturday, March 8.

Art, Design & Play: Liane Lefaivre

Friday, March 7

6-8 PM

Seattle Art Museum, Plestcheeff Auditorium

Liane Lefaivre is an award-winning architectural historian based in Vienna. She will discuss play as a design tool for architects, city planners, and public artists and answer questions from the audience.

Join Friends of Waterfront Seattle, the non-profit champion of the project, for a reception afterwards to continue the conversation!

Art, Design & Play: Ideas From Around The World

Saturday, March 8

Seattle City Hall, Bertha Knight Landes Room

10 AM-4 PM

Visionary designers, artists, and historians from across the globe will present and discuss the past, present, and future of play in art and design. Panelists will include Tatiana Choulika of James Corner Field Operations, Swiss playground historian and curator Gabriela Burkhalter, artist Trimpin, Vancouver-based curator Nigel Prince, and Alan Maskin of Olson Kundig Architects.
