

The Gribble has seven sets of legs, five moving mouths, and a biiiiig appetite for wood-borne bacteria that could cause the edge of downtown Seattle to slip into the Puget Sound.

By the thousands, these flea-sized critters have devoured portions of the wooden platform and supporting timbers designed to stabilize the seawall. He's one bad dude!!!

Elliott Bay  Seawall
Project

Hotline: 206-618-8584

Email: seawall@seattle.gov

Website: www.seattle.gov/transportation/seawall.htm