

SUMMER ON THE WATERFRONT

Summer is in full swing on the waterfront!

PIER 62/63 PHASE 1 REBUILD DECISION UPDATE

Seattle City Council voted this week to approve Mayor Ed Murray's proposal to accelerate rebuilding the southern half of Pier 62/63. Construction is anticipated to begin in fall 2017. Learn more about the planned improvements to Pier 62/63 on our website.

SUMMER ART ON THE WATERFRONT

Check out Waterfront Exchange, a series of temporary art installations and events on Seattle's central waterfront. The art installations feature colorful posters, subversive signage, an emerging goddess and a photographic tableau. All installations are free and open to the public. Learn more on our website.

Outburst by Nicole Kistler is located on the Pike Street Hillclimb.

FAIRS AND FESTIVALS

One of our favorite things about summer is participating in fairs and festivals across Seattle including Pista sa Nayon Filipino Festival, Delridge Day and Salmon Homecoming Fest, just to name a few. Stop by, say hi and take a free photo – we look forward to seeing you!

Visit our website events calendar to stay up to date with events we will be participating in this summer.

HOT SPOT 2016 IS HEATING UP

Join Friends of Waterfront Seattle tonight at Hot Spot for Summer Vacation with C89.5. DJ Gabriel Zus will be spinning dance music from 6 to 9 PM.

Located in existing Waterfront Park between the Seattle Aquarium and The Great Wheel, Hot Spot is a pilot project that enlivens this public space with free music and other performances and activities, all with an eye towards programming the future waterfront park. The 2016 Hot Spot season will continue through Labor Day, offering awesome events on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Check out all the upcoming Hot Spot events here.
