

Our fifth community forum is next
Wednesday, March 14. RSVP!

UNIQUELY SEATTLE

Most of us chose Seattle as our home out of love. We are here because there is a certain irresistible something that keeps us intrigued and inspired. This forum is an ambitious attempt to have a conversation about what exactly that is and how it should shape our future waterfront. Or to put a different way, why does Seattle matter?

The best public spaces express the dreams a city has for itself. With the waterfront project, we have the opportunity to create a new civic heart at the center of our city. How do we make sure it speaks to who we are as a city, and who we want to become?

Join us for a lively panel discussion moderated by Cary Moon (Central Waterfront Committee) and hear unique perspectives from our guest speakers:

Shauna Causey, social media consultant and community organizer

Dana Arviso, Executive Director of Potlach Fund

Charels Mudede, Seattle Stranger

Sunny Speidel, President and CEO of Seattle Underground Tour

Knute Berger, Crosscut

Katya Anderson, Seattle Youth Commissioner

Following the panel discussion, we'll break into small groups to continue the conversation about the future of our waterfront.

5:30 - 7:30 pm
