

Share your story about the history of the waterfront

Waterfront Seattle and the Elliott Bay Seawall Project are teaming up to collect your stories about the history of the waterfront and seawall. Have a memory of the seawall being built? Do you recall Seattle's central waterfront way back when? You can share your story in one of three easy ways:

1. Call 1-877-633-2420 toll-free to record your story
2. Send an email to: seawall@seattle.gov
3. Mail a letter to:
Sonia Palma
Waterfront/Seawall Oral History Project
P.O. Box 34996
Seattle, WA 98124

The submission deadline is June 8, 2012.

"Pier Peer" event with People for Puget Sound

The Elliott Bay Seawall Project will join People for Puget Sound for the first "Pier Peer" event. This fun and informative session will share information about the existing habitat and future restoration efforts along our waterfront. To RSVP and learn more, follow this link.

Wednesday, April 25
8 - 9 pm
Bell Harbor Marina, 2203 Alaskan Way

The Elliott Bay Seawall Project and Waterfront Seattle are part of the City of Seattle's Waterfront Program, which will replace the failing seawall to protect public safety and create fun and safe new space for things like parks, paths, access to the water, and places to enjoy views, events and cultural activities along the waterfront.
