

SUMMER ON THE WATERFRONT

Get ready for a summer full of activities on and about the waterfront!

CONNECTING WITH YOU

One of our favorite parts of the Waterfront Seattle design process is the opportunity to discuss the project with a range of stakeholders and community groups. It's great to hear the diverse ways people use the waterfront.

In May, we had the pleasure of gathering design feedback from Cambodian-Americans at the Golden House Bakery in White Center, and attended the Mien, Lao and Hmong Senior Lunch at the Filipino Community Center. If you're interested in a Waterfront Seattle discussion for your own community group or organization, email us at info@waterfrontseattle.org or call 206-499-8040.
