FRIENDS EVENT TOMORROW NIGHT

Back in March, Friends of Waterfront Seattle launched The Source, a series of community open house events celebrating our waterfront as a source of heritage, creative inspiration and appreciation for the natural world.

Join Friends of Waterfront Seattle April 16th, 5:30 to 7:30 PM at Waterfront Space, for The Source: Environment event, featuring a presentation by B.J. Cummings, Sustainable Seattle's 2015 "Sustainability Hero" and the River Network's 2015 National "River Hero," awarded for her work on the Duwamish River. Cummings will speak about how our waterfronts are integrated with an emphasis on the salmon migration and salmon's cultural, subsistence and economic value.

Guests will enjoy live music from Chaotic Noise Marching Corps and Lydia Ramsey, beer and wine, and food from Marination Station. Guests will also be invited to participate in Seattle Art Museum's Community Salmon Mural, led by artist Janet Fagan. Click here to RSVP for the April 16th evening event.

If you can't make it that evening, an abbreviated program will take place the following day, Friday, April 17th, at lunchtime. Learn more about this lunchtime program here.
