

SPRING EVENTS ON THE WATERFONT

The sun is starting to shine and we're getting excited for springtime activity! Check out our online calendar for upcoming events on the waterfront. Read below for a free community waterfront series presented by our not-for-profit partner, Friends of Waterfront Seattle.

Sign up to stay in touch with Friends and hear about future events

RSVP now for free community events at Waterfront Space throughout the spring! Join Friends of Waterfront Seattle for The Source, a series of programs celebrating the waterfront as a source of heritage, creative inspiration, and appreciation of the natural world.

RSVP: HISTORY

MARCH 10: HISTORY

David B. Williams, author of Too High and Too Steep: Reshaping Seattle's Topography, will delve into the history of the Seattle waterfront through the lens of geology, focusing on the unprecedented engineering projects that shaped Seattle's central shoreline.

(image of Denny Hill regrade via HistoryLink.org)

RSVP: ECOLOGY

APRIL 14: ECOLOGY

Research scientist Jeff Cordell will speak about his work with the Elliott Bay Seawall Project to create a design that supports habitat and salmon migration. Mr. Cordell led the long-term research to design, install, and monitor large-scale test panels along the waterfront.

(image of salmon in Elliott Bay via Creative Commons)

RSVP: ART

MAY 12: ART

Artist Martha Rosler's Seattle: Hidden Histories (1991), a set of short PSA videos made in collaboration with local indigenous residents, including historians, linguists, and leaders, will be presented by the City of Seattle's Office of Arts and Culture.

(image of Vi Hilbert from Seattle: Hidden Histories)

Copyright © 2016 Seattle Department of Transportation, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you signed up for Waterfront Seattle updates.

Our mailing address is:

Seattle Department of Transportation
PO Box 34996
Seattle, WA 98124-4996

Add us to your address book

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Having trouble reading this email? Click here for a plain version.

