

You're invited to Trick-or-Treat on the Waterfront this Sunday!

Join Waterfront Seattle and bring your family and friends to the Trick-or-Treat on the Waterfront celebration. Wear your costume — or borrow ours — and join the fun at our free Waterfront Seattle photo booth. Then bring your trick-or-treat baskets to more than fifteen participating businesses and activity stops from the Ferry Terminal to the Olympic Sculpture Park.

Trick-or-Treat on the Waterfront

Sunday, October 28

11am - 5pm

Waterfront Seattle photo booth at Waterfront Park, 1301 Alaskan Way

Don't forget to download the official Waterfront Treasure Map to see the complete list of stops, including a Seattle Firefighters fire truck show-and-tell, Halloween Fun at the Seattle Aquarium, and of course trick-or-treating at waterfront businesses!

Trick-or-Treat on the Waterfront is free and open to the public. For complete details visit www.seattlewaterfront.org/trick-or-treat/.

Questions or comments about Waterfront Seattle?

info@waterfrontseattle.org

206.499.8040

waterfrontseattle.org

Unsubscribe

For special accommodations, including interpretation, please contact info@waterfrontseattle.org or 206.499.8040.

Persons who are deaf or hard of hearing may make a request for alternative formats through the Washington Relay Service at 7-1-1.